The student population at Rice is almost 24% international, but did you know that the staff at OISS is 50% international?

To celebrate the upcoming International Education Week (iew.state.gov), OISS would like to invite you to learn a little bit more about the language and culture of the countries that our staff comes from. We are hosting the following presentations:

<ASIA>

Tuesday, November 10th

4:00 p.m. –

Lovett Hall Conference Room (Entrance B, 1st Floor)

Learn about the language and culture of Japan and Kazakhstan

<EUROPE>

Wednesday, November 11th

4:00 p.m. –

Lovett Hall Conference Room (Entrance B, 1st Floor)

Learn about the language and culture of Finland and Hungary

Both presentations will take place in the Lovett Hall Conference Room (Entrance B, 1st floor, behind the Rice University Welcome Center).
