The amulet of ogum - A Film by Nelson Pereira dos Santos:

Department: Rice Media Center and Brazilian Consulate in Houston

Location: FILM AUDITORIUM, Rice Media Center

Time: 8 PM to 10 PM

Description: A blind singer entertains a gang of thieves with a tale: a boy from the country comes to the big city and becomes a powerful gangster, using the powers of Candomblé. An extraordinary mix of magical realism and genre material. Amulet of Ogum must be seen as a forerunner of modern gangster films and as one of the few films to attempt a political and populist cinema. This film screening is in partnership with the Museum of Fine Arts Houston. Tickets for "The Amulet of Ogum" are $6.00 general admission and $5.00 student/staff member.

Prison Memories – A film by Nelson Pereira dos Santos:

Department: Rice Media Center and Brazilian Consulate in Houston.

Time: 8 PM to 10 PM

Description: In 1936, during the reign of the dictator Getulio Vargas, a writer (Carlos Vereza) is taken into custody and held without explanation. He moves from an ordinary jail cell to a correctional facility and finally to a penal colony. But, miraculously, his imprisonment turns into a kind of liberation, as he becomes a more committed human being.
